Dear Chris

I am writing at your request to describe my experience with Bodywall.

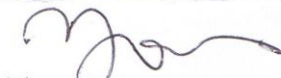

I have a peripheral neuropathy of the right femoral nerve which became severe in May 2009 and meant that I was barely able to walk.

I underwent various treatments including physiotherapy, Pilates, chiropractic, acupuncture, neural prolotherapy and Bodywall.

My experience with Bodywall was favourable. I have had 5 massages with Danny Orani and one session on the Bodywall with Chris Toal. The frequency of my treatment has been limited by my living in Wellington where Bodywall is unavailable.

I found both Danny and Chris to be professional, informative and caring. Every session that I had, led to improvement. I am happy to refer patients for this treatment and to continue with it myself when I am able.

Yours sincerely

Tessa Jones
